

Year 6 – PSHE KCV – Being me in my world

Key skills to learn:

- Expressing their hopes and fears for the upcoming year, and giving strategies how they can deal with their worries.
 - There are universal rights for children, but for many these are not met.
 - Comparing their wants and needs with other children in other less fortunate communities.
 - Their actions can affect others on a global scale.
 - Comparing their lives, including rights and responsibilities with another community.
 - My behaviour may affect my rights and responsibilities

SMSC Links:

Social – Aiding and helping one another, working co-operatively to achieve a common goal. Knowing their place within a team.

Moral – Children have moral decisions to make when they are in certain scenarios. Even if this means that they may be hurt in other cultures.

Spiritual – Empathising with others who may not be as fortunate as myself.

Cultural – Our culture of looking after children is not necessarily in place all around the world. Awareness of other countries attitudes towards children

Words to know and spell (Tier 2 Vocabulary)

Values	Worth	Solution
Contribution	Authority	Observer
Valued	Included	Excluded
Collaboration	Opportunities	Empathise
Citizen	Appreciation	Motivation

Words to understand and spell (Tier 3 Vocabulary)

Choice	The act of choosing or selecting something for yourself
Ghana	A republic in West Africa
West Africa	Western region of the continent of Africa, comprising of various countries such as Nigeria, Burkina Faso Ghana.
Cocoa Plantation	An estate in which cocoa beans are grown
Maslow	American psychologist
Comparison	A consideration or estimate of the similarities or dissimilarities between two things or people
Obstacles	Something that blocks someone’s way or hinders someone’s progress
Decision	A decision or conclusion reached after consideration

Concept check questions. Test yourself:

- Is it right that I lead an extremely different life than other children around the world?
- What effect can you have upon those children who are less fortunate than myself?
- Do we always have a choice in every action that we take?
- Do you feel your voice is always listened to? Is this right??